

Amanda Price

aeprice28@gmail.com | (912) 667-0447

Athens, Georgia

www.amandapriceart.com

Areas of Interest

- Social justice in art education
- Art as a form of communication and vehicle for social change
- Using student interest to encourage risk taking in their work

Education

Doctoral Student, Art Education
University of Georgia, Athens, GA

Aug. 2019 -
present

Red Clay Writing Project Fellow
University of Georgia, Athens, GA

Summer 2018

Master of Arts in Teaching, Early Childhood Education
Armstrong Atlantic State University, Savannah, GA

May 2012 - May 2014

Certifications:

Georgia Professional Standards Commission Certified Teacher

Art Education

Early Childhood Education

Adult, Infant and Child CPR and First Aid

Bachelor of Arts in Art History, Painting
University of Georgia, Athens, GA

Aug. 2008 - Dec.
2011

Magna cum laude

Scholarly or Professional Memberships

- Georgia Professional Association of Educators 2014 - present
- National Art Education Association 2016 - present
- Georgia Art Education Association 2016 - present

Teaching Experience

Visual Art Teacher, grades 9–12, Clarke Central High School, Athens, GA

Aug. 2017 -
present

- Developed and began three dimensional art program
- Instructed students demonstrations, discussions, visual aids, and other teaching methods for student comprehension
- Planned and taught differentiated units of 9-12 visual art grade curriculum that aligned with the Georgia Standards of Excellence, National Standards, and Clarke County School District Instructional Framework
- Used assessment data to identify learning needs and plan differentiated instruction

Amanda Price

aeprice28@gmail.com | (912) 667-0447

Athens, Georgia

www.amandapriceart.com

- Provided opportunities for students to use globally diverse perspectives in seeking solutions to meaningful problems
- Attended professional development opportunities that included Best Practices, Non Violent Communication, Google Training
- Collaborated with the Lyndon House Arts Center to organize the district wide art show
- Initiated and sponsored National Art Honor Society
- Sponsor of the Young Democrats Club
- Co-Creator of Graphic Design Advisory Committee
- Member of Green Schools Committee
- Collaborated with the Lyndon House Arts Center and University of Georgia Art Education Department to develop a Portfolio Review Day for high school students
- Organized school wide student art show in collaboration with Graphic Design Department. Included local art supply shop donations as student prizes.
- Mentor teacher to UGA Art Education students
- Organized CCHS Art and Design show

Visual Art Teacher, grades 6–8, Effingham County Middle School, Guyton, GA Aug. 2014 - May 2017

- Instructed students demonstrations, discussions, visual aids, and other teaching methods for student comprehension
- Planned and taught differentiated units of 6-8 visual art grade curriculum according to Georgia Performance Standards and National Standards
- Developed and administered formative and summative assessments, including the District Student Learning Objective Assessment, to monitor student comprehension and inform instruction
- Coordinated and advised the student yearbook staff
- Initiated and sponsored Art Club
- Implemented school wide student literacy strategy as part of Striving Readers Literacy team
- Organized student art shows
- Member of Media Committee, Literacy Committee, Veteran's Day Committee
- Intermediate Teacher Peer Mentor

Presentations

Presenter at Red Clay Writing Project Saturday Morning Workshop Series, Athens, GA Oct. 2019

Social Justice, Comics, and Literacy: Using Visual Art to Improve Student Writing

Presenter at Georgia Department of Education Literacy and the Whole Child Conference, Macon, GA July 2019

Social Justice, Comics & Literacy: Using Comics to Find Student Voice

Presenter at National Art Education Association National Conference, Boston,

Amanda Price

aeprice28@gmail.com | (912) 667-0447

Athens, Georgia

www.amandapriceart.com

MA Mar. 2019
Social Justice: Using Comics to Find Student Voice

Presenter at Red Clay Writing Project Conference, UGA Gwinnett Campus Nov. 2018
Using Multigenre and Sculpture to Rethink Personal Narrative

Grants, Honors and Awards

Featured in Athens Banner Herald, Athens, Georgia Nov. 14, 2018
Comic Relief, Clarke Central teacher helps students find voice through comics

Foundation for Excellence Bank of America Fine Arts Grant Jan. 2019
Georgia Flora and Fauna Conservation Mosaic

CCSD Award of Excellence Oct. 2018

Additional Experience

Visual Arts Camp Instructor, St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Rincon, GA July 2015

- Developed printmaking lessons to meet the needs students ages 5 through 12
- Managed and instructed relief printmaking class to K-8 students

Summer Camp Painting Instructor, Department of Cultural Affairs Art Camp, Savannah, GA July 2014

- Planned and taught a week long unit integrating painting with art history
- Independently managed classes of students from ages 6 through 12
- Led students in a constructive art critique and discussion at the conclusion of the camp

Graduate Student Internship, Blandford Elementary School, Rincon, GA Jan. - May 2014

- Created lesson plans for all subject areas according to district's standards; incorporated differentiated instruction and the use of higher order thinking skills
- Participated in grade-level collaborative meetings, school-wide faculty meetings, in-service training workshops
- Utilized effective classroom management, modeled appropriate classroom behavior, and used positive discipline strategies to create an engaging classroom environment

Substitute Teacher, Effingham County School District, GA Jan. - Dec. 2013

- Managed and instructed 2nd grade – 8th grade classes in academic subjects and art using the classroom teacher's lessons

Studio Assistant, Good Dirt Ceramics Studio, Athens, GA 2011

Education Intern, Telfair Museum of Art, Savannah, GA 2009